

ill Sturdy Beacon, Keeper's Cottage In Ruins

here, its beam lancing out over Murphy, ARCA. York Pioneers
ttage, built at the same date.

The lighthouse and its neighboring buildings, as seen in 1907, are shown in an illustration for John Ross Robertson's Landmarks of Toronto. The cottage is the centre building of the three side by side. It and the lighthouse are the only ones left.

* Badly damaged by storm and wind, the lightkeeper's cottage still stands. This is rear view, showing how recent wind-storm demolished back wall.

FARMER'S NEIGHBORS FRIENDS IN NEED

Shelbyville, Ind., Nov. 17—(AP) — Glen Dale, who lives on a farm southeast of here, has some mighty fine friends.

He found on his door step a box containing $746.20 in cash and a note from "Your Friends and Neighbors" expressing sympathy for recent misfortunes.

One of Dale's sons required extensive hospital care recently after being stricken with tetanus. Another son must go to a hospital soon to have a broken nose mended.

Neighbors also have shucked 20 acres of corn for the Dales.

harbor days that stands safely on Lakeshore Blvd., not far from the Princes' Gate of the CNE. It is from the past we derive our inspiration for the future. The cottage might well be preserved as a museum of local marine history.

is has some claim to fame as the possible scene of a reputed murder. There is a tradition, unprovable at this date, that Mueller, the first keeper, met his death at the hands of partment. There is, however, a pos- winter, it has allowed the attic floor,